The open regatta of the Shelter Island Yacht Club will be sailed on Saturday. All entries must be made in writing and delivered to the Regatta committee of the club, Shelter Island Beights, before 10 o'clock A. M. of the day of the regatta. The yachts will race in the following seven classes: sloop, cutter, and yawl—class A, all over 35 feet, l. w. l.; class B, all over 30 feet and not over 35 feet, l. w. l.; class C, all over 25 feet and not over 30 feet, l. w. l.; class D, all of 25 feet and under, l. w. l. Catboats—class 1, all 25 feet and over, l. w. l.; class 2, all 24 feet and over, but under 28 feet, l. w. l.; class 3, all under 24 feet, l. w. l. Other classes may be added, in case the entries which are made shall render it desirable to do so. The Regatta Committee is composed of William H.
Boydley, chairman, Island Fish, and J. E.
Moore.

AMITYVILLE, L. I., July 30. The sixth annual cruise of the Hempstead Bay Yacht Club was commenced today. The fleet anchored off this place, and at gun fire sailed across the bay to the club house at Fire Island beach. The following yachts started: Tona Boy, Commodore southard, Henrietta, Seaman L. Pettitt, Carrie W., Floyd Weekes, Nora, William Z. Ketchum, Mystery, John S. Sneliker, Grawanac, Charles R. Lusk, Hunter, J. N. Newman, Maggie, William S. Coates, Elmore, William F. Miller, and Glover, Frank Phoe. Most of the yachts will participate in the races of the Great South Bay Yacht Club at the termination of the cruise next Saturday. Patchogue, Water, Island, Smith's Point, and the Moreshead and other local points on the Sound will be visited. Seven of the yachts are at Patchogue waiting favorable weather to continue on the eastward cruise.
The members of the club spent yesterday in sightseeing around Patchogue. There are 118 members of the club in the cruise.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

The Dead Man's Companions Arrested— Was His Death Due to Accident?

One of three men who were walking together through the Pennsylvania Railroad cut was run over and killed by a west-bound express train at Walden avenue, Jersey City, last night. His companions were arrested.

They described themselves as Otto Miller of 4 Greenwich street and August Westfager of 53 Buxtery, this city. They said they met the other man only a few minutes before he was killed and had not learned his name. There was nothing on the dead man's body by which it could be identified, except a scarf pin with the letter D on it.

The police are holding Miller and Westfager in order to investigate their story, and also to arrange the return of the engineer of the train, to get his version of the occurrence, which, they think, may not have been an accident.

Joseph Brady, 30 years old, of Thirteenth street and Jersey avenue, Jersey City, took a short cut last night through the Central Railroad yards at Commodore way to get to Jersey avenue. On the way over he was run down by locomotive 144 and one side of his head was crushed. It is thought that he will die. He was taken to the City Hospital.
